- b. Changes shall only be binding on Buyer if issued in writing by an authorized representative of Buyer's purchasing department. Buyer's engineering and technical personnel are not authorized to order Changes, including Changes to drawings, designs, or specifications
- c. If any Change under this clause causes an increase or decrease in the cost of or the time required for performance, an equitable adjustment shall be made in price or delivery schedule or both ("Adjustment Claim"), and the Order shall be modified in writing accordingly. Any claim by Supplier for adjustment must be submitted in writing in the form of a complete change proposal, fully supported by factual information, to Buyer's purchasing department not later than fifteen (15) calendar days after the date of receipt by Supplier of the change order, or within such extension of that fifteen-day period as Buyer, in its sole discretion, may grant in writing at Supplier's request; provided, however, that Buyer may in its discretion consider any such claim regardless of when asserted, except that no claim for equitable adjustment hereunder shall be allowed if it is asserted after final payment of this Order.
- d. If the cost of property or material made obsolete or excess as a result of a Change is included in Supplier's Adjustment Claim, Buyer shall have the right to prescribe the disposition of such property or material. Notwithstanding any pending Adjustment Claims, Supplier shall diligently proceed with the performance of this Order, as directed by Buyer. Nothing herein shall be construed as relieving Supplier of its duty to perform, including the failure of the Parties to resolve an Adjustment Claim. Buyer shall pay to Supplier in accordance with the terms of this Order all sums not in dispute pending resolution of an Adjustment Claim. Notwithstanding the generality of the foregoing, Buyer shall retain its rights with respect to setoff and withholding.
- e. 15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- a. Prior to either party initiating litigation, the parties shall follow the following process for the resolution of disputes:
 1. Upon the written request of a party to have an informal dispute resolution, each party shall, within five (5) calendar days of the date that such written request is received by the non-requesting party, designate a representative who will be responsible for communicating, producing documents and negotiating for the purpose of resolving such dispute. The representatives shall negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve the dispute.
 - a. During the course of negotiations, all reasonable requests made by one party to another for information that is not privileged, proprietary, or otherwise confidential and is reasonably related to the dispute, will be promptly honored.
 - b. The specific format for the discussions will be left to the discretion of the designated representatives, but may include the preparation of written and/or oral statements of fact, statements of position and/or offers of settlement. The parties acknowledge that any such statements or offers will be prepared in connection with settlement negotiations, and as such will be privileged and shall not be used in any subsequent proceedings, whether related to the dispute or not, against the party who prepared such statement or offer unless it is subsequently introduced by the preparing party in a subsequent proceeding. No such written and/or oral statements or offers of settlement shall constitute an admission or waiver of rights by either party in any proceedings. At the request of either party, all such written statements or offers of settlement, and all copies thereof, shall be promptly returned to the party who provided the same.
 - c. Should the designated representatives fail to reach agreement within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the written request by the non-requesting party (or such longer period as such representatives may agree in writing), then upon the written request of either party, a vice president of each party shall attempt to resolve the issue within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the written request by the non-requesting party.
- b. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section/paragraph, either party may resort to court action for injunctive (or other) relief at any time if the dispute resolution processes set forth in this clause would permit or otherwise cause irreparable injury to such party or any third party claiming against such party, due to delay arising out of the dispute resolution process.
- c. Each party shall continue performing its obligations under this agreement while any dispute is being resolved. The dispute resolution procedures set forth herein do not supersede, delay or otherwise affect any rights of termination that are expressly set forth in the agreement.
- d. This section/paragraph shall not be construed to prevent a party from instituting, and each party is authorized to institute, formal proceedings prior to the completion of the parties' obligations under this section/paragraph in order to avoid the expiration of any applicable limitations period, or to preserve a superior position with respect to other creditors.

16. NOTICE TO BUYER OF LABOR DISPUTES. Whenever Seller has knowledge that any actual or potential labor dispute is delaying or threatens to delay the timely performance of this contract, Seller shall immediately give notice thereof, including all relevant information, to Buyer.

19. ASSIGNMENT, DELEGATION AND SUBCONTRACTING. Seller shall not assign any of its rights or interest in this contract or subcontract all or substantially all of its performance of this contract without Buyer's prior written consent. Seller shall not delegate any of its duties or obligations under this contract. Seller may assign its right to monies due or to become due. No assignment, delegation or subcontracting by Seller, with or without Buyer's consent, shall relieve Seller of any of its obligations under this contract or prejudice any of Buyer's rights against Seller whether arising before or after the date of any assignment. This article does not limit Seller's ability to purchase standard commercial supplies or raw materials.

20. PUBLICITY & NEWS RELEASES.

a. Any release of information relating to this Order, including news releases, articles, brochures, advertisements, speeches, etc., requires written permission of Buyer and will include acknowledgment of Government sponsorship where applicable. The Supplier further agrees to include this provision in any subcontract awarded as a result of this Order.

b. Supplier shall not, without first obtaining the written consent of Buyer, in any manner advertise or publish the fact that Supplier has contracted to furnish Buyer the Goods or Services ordered by Buyer, or use any trademarks or trade names of Buyer in Supplier's advertising or promotional materials. In the event of Supplier's breach of this provision, Buyer shall, in addition to other available remedies, have the right to cancel the undelivered portion of any Goods or Services ordered by Buyer and, further, Buyer shall not be required to make further payments to Supplier except for conforming Goods delivered or Services rendered prior to Buyer's cancellation as herein provided.

21. BUYER'S PROPERTY. Seller shall clearly mark; maintain an inventory of, and keep segregated or identifiable all of Buyer's property and all property to which Buyer acquires an interest by virtue of this contract. Seller assumes all risk of loss, destruction or damage of such property while in Seller's possession, custody or control. Upon request, Seller shall provide Buyer with adequate proof of insurance against such risk of loss. Seller shall not use such property other than in performance of this contract without Buyer's prior written consent. Seller shall notify Buyer's Authorized Procurement Representative if Buyer's property is lost, damaged or destroyed. As directed by Buyer upon completion, termination or cancellation of this contract, Seller shall deliver such property, to the extent not incorporated in delivered end

When such property is no longer needed for the performance of this contract, or at such other time as may be directed by Buyer pursuant to paragraph (i) of this article, Seller shall return such property to Buyer or the Government, as applicable, in as good condition as when received, except for reasonable wear and tear, and except for such property as has been reasonably consumed in the performance of work hereunder."

Unless otherwise provided for in this Order, or in a prior written order directed to the software provided hereunder, Buyer's sole obligation with respect to software provided hereunder shall be to use such software in compliance with applicable copyright laws and regulations, irrespective of any other third party license agreement, including, but not limited to, any license agreement packaged with such software.
- c. To any extent Buyer does not otherwise have the right(s) to do so, Supplier, on behalf of itself, its employees and any others used by Supplier including subcontractors, hereby grants to Buyer worldwide, non-exclusive, perpetual, fully-paid, irrevocable, transferable licenses (with rights to grant sublicenses) to make, have made, sell, copy, distribute, display, perform, adapt and use, make derivative works, embed and otherwise freely exploit in any and all media now known or later developed, all materials and other information which Supplier provides or has provided to Buyer either during the term of or prior to the effective date of this Order. Supplier hereby represents and warrants to Buyer that all materials, devices, Services and other information that Supplier uses, copies or adapts hereunder are created originally by Supplier and/or are licensed lawfully to Supplier, with the rights to allow Supplier to comply with this Order
- d. Supplier shall promptly disclose in writing to Buyer all Intellectual Property produced or first reduced to practice in the performance of this Order. To the extent permissible by law, Supplier, on behalf of itself, its employees and any others used by Supplier, hereby irrevocably assigns and hereby agrees to assign to Buyer all right, title and interest to all Intellectual Property, and agrees to do all things reasonably necessary to enable Buyer to secure United States patents, copyrights and any other rights relating to Intellectual Property, including the execution of a specific assignment of title of any Intellectual Property to Buyer and to cooperate with Buyer at Buyer's expense to defend and enforce any such Intellectual Property. Supplier, on behalf of itself, its employees and any others used by Supplier, hereby irrevocably waives all "moral rights", all rights of privacy and publicity, and the like, in all materials provided to Buyer. Supplier agrees that, for any works of authorship created by Supplier or any employees or any others used by Supplier in the course of this Order, those works that come under one of the categories of "Works Made for Hire" in 17 U.S.C. §101 shall be considered "Works Made for Hire". For any works of authorship that do not come under such categories, Supplier, warranting that it has the right to do so, hereby assigns all right, title, and interest it has to any copyright in such works and will execute, or cause to be executed at Buyer's expense, any documents required to establish Buyer's ownership of such copyright.

- e. The tangible and intangible work product developed under this Order, whether or not delivered under this Order, including, but not limited to, all analyses, recommendations, reports, and memoranda, shall become the property of Buyer.

24. INFRINGEMENT INDEMNITY.

- a. For work performed hereunder or goods or services delivered hereunder, Supplier shall be liable for and shall indemnify and save Buyer and each subsequent purchaser or user thereof, harmless from any claim, suit or action, export or import proceeding, alleging that manufacture, export, import, use, sale or offer for sale infringes any patent, trademark, copyright, semiconductor chip product mask work right, other right or misappropriation of information or other violation of an Intellectual Property right; except, however, when such alleged infringement arises as a necessary consequence of Supplier's compliance with specifications or designs furnished by Buyer that describe that aspect of the Goods or Services on which such alleged infringement is based. In such event, Buyer shall save Supplier harmless therefrom, but this exception shall not apply if the subject matter giving rise to the claim for infringement was derived from, or selected by Supplier.
- b. The party against whom such infringement claim is made, or such suit or action is made, or such suit or action is commenced, shall promptly notify the other party in writing. The party required to indemnify under the provisions hereof shall promptly assume and diligently conduct the entire defense of such alleged infringement at its own expense, provided that such party receives prompt written notice of such claim, suit, or action as such is commenced against the other party. Insofar as its interests are affected the other party shall have the right, at its own expense and without releasing any obligation, liability, or undertaking of the party required to indemnify, to: (i) cooperate in the defense of such claim, and (ii) with permission of the court, to intervene in any such suit or action. Buyer shall have the right to reasonably reject counsel selected by Supplier and the right to reject any settlement that would negatively impact Buyer as determined solely by Buyer. Buyer shall have the right to participate with Supplier in determining the strategy to defend any such suit or action.
- c. Notwithstanding any of the above provisions, Buyer shall have the further right, at its own election, to supersede Supplier in the defense of any such alleged infringement and thereafter to assume and conduct the same according to Buyer's sole discretion, in which event supplier shall be released from its obligation to pay for attorney's fees and court costs. Further, Supplier, if requested in writing by Buyer, shall cooperate with Buyer in Buyer's defense of any alleged infringement claim.

25. PROTECTION OF BUYER'S PROPRIETARY INFORMATION.

- a. Buyer's Proprietary Information: Supplier agrees that all information on or related to dimensions, materials, software and processes necessary or useful to design, test or define the configuration, life, design features, materials and structural strength or other properties of any of Buyer's products or any components and parts thereof or any processes to manufacture, use, maintain or repair Buyer's products or component parts thereof or to provide services relative thereto, including without limitation:
 - i. designs, processes, drawings, prints, specifications, reports, data, software and other technical or business information, whether in a document, computer file or any other tangible form of expression,

- ii. dimensions, features, materials, markings and tolerances of all parts, equipment, tools, gauges or patterns, other than those which are published by Buyer in manuals, bulletins and other publications which Buyer makes generally available to industry without proprietary limitation, and
- iii. information in any form bearing Buyer's document property rights notice or any similar legend declaring that the information is the property of or otherwise proprietary to Buyer that Buyer provides or has provided, discloses or has disclosed to Supplier at any time in connection with this Order or prior Orders for the provision of Goods or Services of the type or kind described by this Order,
- iv. Intellectual Property assigned to Buyer pursuant to the "Intellectual Property Rights" provision of these Terms and Conditions shall be the exclusive property of Buyer and shall be considered "Buyer's Proprietary Information."

b. Receipt and Protection of Buyer's Proprietary Information

- i. Supplier agrees to inspect upon receipt of all information provided to Supplier by or for Buyer and prior to any copying, use, disclosure or transfer of the information, to notify Buyer in writing through Buyer's cognizant Purchasing Department of any such information which Supplier believes is not Buyer's Proprietary Information. Supplier agrees that failure to provide such notice prior to copying, use, transfer or disclosure of such information shall waive any subsequent claim by Supplier that such information is not required to be treated as Buyer's Proprietary Design Information under this Section.
- ii. Supplier agrees not to receive or accept Buyer's Proprietary Information knowingly from any person, firm, corporation or entity other than Buyer, with the exception of Buyer's Proprietary Information furnished in connection with solicitations or purchase orders issued by a partner or higher-tier supplier of Buyer which expressly reference a Buyer Purchase Order or contain the certification required under this Section, without Buyer's express written consent. Supplier shall promptly notify Buyer if Buyer's Proprietary Information is offered to Supplier by a third party.
- iii. Supplier agrees and promises to keep Buyer's Proprietary Information confidential, and strictly protect it against any use, disclosure or transfer not expressly permitted under this section.
- iv. Supplier promises and agrees to cause all documents and records (including computer or other electronic records) containing or derived in whole or in part from Buyer's Proprietary Information or containing Supplier-developed Buyer's Proprietary Information to bear the following legend:

WARNING

This document is the property of [United Technologies Corporation and/or the United Technologies entity issuing this Order]. You may not possess, use, copy or disclose this document or any information in it, for any purpose, including without limitation to design, manufacture, or repair parts, or obtain FAA or other government approval to do so, without express written permission. Neither receipt nor possession of this document alone, from any source, constitutes such permission. Possession, use, copying or disclosure by anyone without express written permission of [United Technologies Corporation and/or the United Technologies entity issuing this Order] is not authorized and may result in criminal and/or civil liability.

- v. Supplier acknowledges that exposure to Buyer's proprietary design information will make it easier for Supplier to manufacture parts that have the same form, fit and function as parts Supplier manufactures for Buyer. As a result, Supplier agrees and promises to notify Buyer in writing through Buyer's cognizant Purchasing Management and to obtain Buyer's written agreement, not to be unreasonably withheld, prior to manufacturing any parts for another entity that have the same form, fit and function of any parts Supplier manufactures for Buyer (including any replacements or substitutes for any parts Supplier manufactures for Buyer). The written notification shall describe the parts to be manufactured for the other entity and identify the corresponding parts Supplier manufactures for Buyer. The written notification shall also provide Buyer with sufficient information to demonstrate, to Buyer's reasonable satisfaction, that any parts Supplier plans to manufacture for another entity that have the same form, fit and function of any parts Supplier manufactures for Buyer will be manufactured without reference to or use of Buyer's proprietary design information. Supplier agrees that failure to comply with the above requirement shall create a presumption that Supplier is misusing Buyer's proprietary design information and will cause Buyer irreparable harm. If, without obtaining Buyer's written agreement, Supplier manufactures or sells any parts that have the same form, fit and function of any parts Supplier manufactures for Buyer (including any replacements or substitutes for any parts Supplier manufactures for Buyer) to which the presumption described in the immediately preceding clause applies, to anyone other than Buyer (or applies for or assists a third party in obtaining FAA or other government approval for such parts), then Supplier shall be in violation of this Agreement and Buyer shall be entitled to damages (including, but not limited to, injunctive relief and Buyer's lost profits on the manufacture or sale of such parts).
 - vi. Supplier agrees and promises that those persons working for or at the direction of Supplier who are exposed to Buyer's Proprietary Design Information for Buyer's parts will have no involvement in the manufacture of parts with the same form, fit and function for any entity other than Buyer without the prior written approval from Buyer.
- c. Use of Buyer's Proprietary Information
- i. Supplier agrees and promises to use Buyer's Proprietary Information only to perform this Order or other Orders for Buyer, and not to use Buyer's Proprietary Information for any other purpose, including without limitation to design, manufacture or repair a part or detail of a part, compare a part or design of a part, or obtain FAA Parts Manufacturer Approval, a supplemental type certificate or other government approval to manufacture or repair a part, without Buyer's express written consent.
 - ii. Buyer hereby expressly consents to Supplier's use of Buyer's Proprietary Information to respond to a solicitation from or perform purchase orders for a partner of or higher-tier supplier for Buyer when the solicitation or purchase order expressly references a Buyer Order or contains the following certification:

"Goods or services required are solely for United Technologies Corporation, a subsidiary, division, or affiliate of United Technologies Corporation, or a partner thereof acting pursuant to a Partnership Agreement.”

- iii. Buyer further expressly consents to Supplier's use of Pratt & Whitney Proprietary Design Information provided to Supplier by Buyer on or before January 20, 1984, to respond to solicitations from or perform purchase orders for the direct purchase by the U.S. Government of military engine parts. This consent is strictly limited, and does not apply to Pratt & Whitney Proprietary Information which:
 - a. was provided to Supplier by Buyer after January 20, 1984;
