New Location for Purchase Contracts and Approved Processor Information

Dear Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne Supplier:

This letter is to notify you that on October 28, 2005 Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne (PWR) Canoga Park procurements will have a new web address to view purchase contract provisions and quality clauses referenced therein:

<http://www.rocketdynametech.com/supplierinfo>

Please start using the new web address on the 28th to access the contract clauses.

Also, effective October 28th, 2005 is a new location to view the Approved Processors (Certified Special Processors) in the Supplier Portal tool.

If you have changed employees or have not registered within the Supplier Portal previously, please complete the attached registration form and fax to the phone number on the form so we can assure that your supplier profile is set in the system.

Thank you for your continued support.
